

6 Impossible Things

© 2013 Will Stanley

I believe it when you say, you're faithful as can be
And I believe it when you say, that you'll never cheat on me
You see I try to believe, 6 impossible things, before breakfast every day
Cuz I know that's what it takes, to believe you.

I can surely trust your word when you say you're going to the store
There's no chance, by happenstance, you'd take a slight detour.
Yes, I try to believe 6 impossible things, before breakfast every day
Cuz that's exactly what it takes, to believe you.

What went awry with this wonderland of mine
What happened to my beautiful white queen
My life's become a nursery rhyme
I feel like I'm living in a bad, bad dream.

Instrumental

I've got to believe 6 impossible things, before breakfast every day
Cuz that's exactly what it takes, to believe you.
And so I've got to believe 6 impossible things, every single day
Cuz I know that's what it takes, I'm sure that's what it takes,
That's exactly what it takes, to believe you.
