Great Guy

Em Am D→m
Ever since I first laid eyes on you
Em Am D→d
I've tried and tried to show I'll stick like glue
B B7 Em
When you need support, I'm right there
A A7 D
Willing to help and to share

I've slowly tried to show you that my Feelings for you weren't pie in the sky
But unrequited love wins the day
And the way things are is the way things will stay. D Ddim

You tell me that I'm a great guy

Always funny, often fun

Someone to hang out and do things with

Who knows how to joke around and kid

But even so, I'm not the one

You don't want, a Great Guy.

Your last boy friend treated you like dirt
He held your hand so tightly that it hurt
And even though you knew it makes no sense
You found yourself drawn to his confidence.

Now you're telling me I'm a great guy
The opposite of a man who's hit and run
Good for going out and dancing wild
You told your friends you really loved my smile
But even so, I'm not the one
You don't want a Great Guy.
F Am Dm
I can't understand what you see in guys like that
FAm Dm ← They're nothing but a bunch of alley cats
G C ← Why can't you look at me and see the love living there
G C B7 I'd do anything to make you care, I swear.

Don't you think it's time to try something new

Like a guy who thinks it's normal to be true.

You keep telling me, I'm a great guy
So why am I still at square one

It's nice you want my companionship
But it needs to be a little more passionate
Still you've made it clear, I'm not the one
You don't want a Great Guy.
