

False Pretenses
© Will Stanley 2020

I take a look around
I'll tell you what I see
Life's not what I wanted it to be

I wanted loving all around
But that's not what I found
I wish I'd known you'd bring me down.

You came to me under false pretenses
You really got me good and juiced
But now it's time for truth or consequences
I wish that I had seen the ruse.

My ego has been scarred,
That's why I'm being hard
On all my thoughts I can't discard

I see a vision up ahead
It shows everything I dread
Another one of your canards.

You came to me under false pretenses
You gave my libido a big boost
But now it's time for truth or consequences
I wish that I had seen the ruse.

Bridge: If I had known, you were an ice cube
I'm sure I would have stayed away
Looking back, I guess I was your test tube
I admit I felt betrayed.

Instrumental

You came to me under false pretenses
It felt so good to be seduced
But now it's time for truth or consequences
I wish that I had seen the ruse.
