

Gravy Train

© 2004 Will Stanley

Gravy Train is what you want
Grab all the loot that you can flaunt
What you take for granted, is somebody's dream
Gravy Train is what you need
Don't let them tell you it's just greed
You must have the best, for your self-esteem

On the Gravy Train, life's a game
Don't believe that bunk bout no pain no gain
You can have it all and never strain
Don't sacrifice, it don't feel nice
You don't need to have your mashed potatoes plain...on the Gravy Train

On the Gravy Train you can thumb your nose
At the buttinskis who think they know
What the best way is, to allocate your funds
It's nice to give to a charity
But why should your prosperity
Mean you have to pay, for somebody else's fun.

On the Gravy Train, you've got game
Every time you sign your name,
The dimes roll in, up goes your fame
Why sacrifice, you must have spice
You don't need to have your mashed potatoes plain...on the Gravy Train