

Inside Of You

© Will Stanley 2017

I've always thought, that I didn't have a clue
That's what I was taught, way back in my high school
But now I believe, that I've learned a thing or two
I know that true joy is that girl or that boy
Living inside of you.

I've got to say that we are the lucky ones
We're both OK, so many others are at square one
After all of this time, eventually we found the truth
Cuz the truth is the joy in that girl or that boy
Living inside of you.

It's what we've wanted for years
And kept the faith through disappointments and tears.

I hold onto you, and I never want to let you go
You hold on too, I can't wait till you begin to show
Deep in our hearts, we feel we're two of the chosen few
Cuz we've chosen the joy in that girl or that boy
Living inside of you.

Instrumental

One and one sometimes makes three
And that's exciting news for you and me.

Let's go out tonight, it's time to celebrate
We've earned the right, although we won't stay out late
Cuz we need to take care of this very special life that's new
And we'll cherish the joy in that girl or that boy
Living inside of you.
Celebratin' the joy in that girl or that boy
Living inside of you.
Cuz our dream is the joy in that girl or that boy
Living inside of you.
