

See And Be Seen

© 2017 Will Stanley

Do you even give a damn
I feel just like the invisible man
I might as well not be here
You're far away even when you're near
Look at me, listen to me
You hardly ever speak
No teasing, no pleasing
You used to be so sweet

What can I do to show you
That I really want to
Return to what we used to be
Now I want to scream
Cuz I want to see and be seen.
See and be seen.

When we go to a party
You act like you're single again
When people look at the two of us
They wouldn't think we were even friends
Touch me, gently
Even if it's make believe
Hold me, even briefly
Give me what I need.

What can I do to show you
That I really want to
Return to what we used to be
Now I want to scream
Cuz I want to see and be seen.
See and be seen.

Mutual friends have asked if we're okay
It's always awkward, I don't know what to say.

Instrumental

Call me, your sweetie
Thrill me to the core
Maybe I'm just needy
But I don't care anymore

What can I do to show you
That I really want to
Return to what we used to be
Now I want to scream
Cuz I want to see and be seen.
See and be seen.
