

She's Got The Look (That Gets The Looks)

© 2012 Will Stanley

I'm insecure, as well I should be
I've got a hot girl, I'm sure you'd agree
And even though she swears that she is faithful to me
Every guy who goes by,
Can't help but stare longingly.

What am I to think, when she gives them a wink
What am I to say, when it makes me ache to look away.

So please don't imply, that my mind's gone awry
I'm on tenterhooks
Cuz she's got the look that gets the looks.

Instrumental

Every guy tells me she's as cute as can be
And they want to make her theirs, is what that says to me.

So don't you tell me, that it's not what it seems
That I'm just having bad dreams
That she won't leave me
Cuz I keep getting signs that say I'm living on borrowed time
And I get that outlook, cuz
She's got the look, that gets the looks.
And I've adopted this outlook, cuz
She's got the look, that gets the looks.
Yes, she's got the look, that gets the looks.
It's true, she's got the look, that gets the looks.
