

Stop Whining, Start Winning

© 2011 Will Stanley

You always claim you don't get a break
But what you ain't got, you gotta take
Nobody's gonna do your dirty work
Everyone will think you're just a lazy jerk
If your problems, turn out to be fakes

Go out and grab life by the ear
Don't wait, you've already wasted years
Just get it straight that there is a better way
Stop whining, start winning today.

Each person has a different degree
Of what it takes to finally succeed
But that don't mean the world's unfair
You yourself have got talent to spare
You've just got to use it ASAP.

Go out and grab life by the toe
Shake it left and right, and never let go
Recite these words that point to a better way
Stop whining, start winning today.

I know you're scared
You ask, do I dare
But you'll be lost if you
Hesitate
It may already
Be too late.

Time to try something brand new
So I'm giving myself a good talking to
I know in my heart, there is a better way
I gotta stop whining, start winning today.
You better stop whining, start winning today.
Stop whining, start winning today.
