

Uh-Oh

© 2012 Will Stanley

Uh-oh, baby wants to go
She knows, it'll break my heart in two
And leave me blue
After all these years of bliss,
How can it come down to this.
I try to put on a brave face
But there can be no about-face

Oh no, I really want her to stay,
There's no way, it's gone way too far
That's where we are
A crushing blow
Uh-oh

How can you know when, romance is young
Someday it'll turn on you, like a stun gun.

Instrumental

I know that I gave it my all,
Still I find myself behind the 8 ball
Soon I'll be, all on my own
All for one and all alone.

Oh no, we're nearing the end
Just around the bend
Feels like death row
Uh-oh
A crushing blow
I'll be alone
She's going to go
Uh-oh.
