

Wudunit

© 2010 Will Stanley

Maybe once in your life, there comes a night
When true love takes control, and you find a mate for your soul
And that's just what happened to me, the evening that I met you
I looked into your eyes, and instantly I knew

Wudunit, wudunit
A night I'll never forget
Jumpin' off a cliff, feelin' no regret
It started slow with hello
But ended up with a kiss
It sure was a heck of a night
Wudunit.

Neither one of us knew, how to construe
Every sly side glance, and every awkward advance
We kept hoping the words would come, that would keep us on track
We started to slow dance, when we sensed no turning back.

Wudunit, wudunit
A night to recall
Kickin' up our heels, and havin' a ball
It started slow with hello
But ended up with a kiss
It sure was a heck of a night
Wudunit.

How could we know
How far we would go
And that love would last and last
But years have gone by
And we still rely
On the spark from that first night
To keep our hearts burning bright.

Instrumental

And that's just what happened to me, the evening that I met you
I looked into your eyes, and instantly I knew

Wudunit, wudunit
A night I'll never forget
Jumpin' off a cliff, feelin' no regret
It started slow with hello
But ended up in bliss
And it sure was a wonderful night
The moon and stars were shining bright
And we made love until we saw daylight
And it sure was a heck of a night
Wudunit.